IRC continues to offer a wealth of services to the community! The Library System had many compliments about their February Date with a Book, March Madness, and the upcoming April Trivia. Parks & Recreation had pool patrons at both the NCAC and the GAC thank them for all they do and express how happy they were to be able to participate in the programs offered by such caring and welcoming employees! Way to go David, Katie, Holly, Chastity, Candace, Tito, & all the rest! The Animal Control Division received a note from three women whose small dog waded too far into the mangroves and needed rescuing. Richard Hall was patient and kind in extricating the frightened pup and delivering him safe and sound!

FRS offers free financial planning workshops! To register by phone call 866-446-9377, option 2 or to register online go here: <https://myfrs.com/WorkshopCalender.htm>. The April schedule includes April 5th - Using the FRS to Plan for Retirement 10:00 a.m. to Noon & April 6th - Understanding Your Benefits under the FRS Pension Plan 10:00 a.m. to Noon

The Florida Mobile Mammography service will be onsite in the Building B East-side parking lot on Friday, April 9th. A flyer is included with this newsletter for further information on how to schedule an appointment online or by phone.

Blood Drive. Thursday, April 15th, 9 am – 3 pm. The bus will be located at the Building B East-side parking lot. Appointments are encouraged and can be made at www.oneblood.org/donate-now. Use the sponsor code #20402. A flyer is included with this newsletter.

Take charge of your health and overall well-being! Included with this newsletter are additional health flyers titled Drinking Too Much, Healthy Eating Made Simple, Get Financially Fit. These have been provided by your Employee Assistance Program/Health Advocate. The Employee Assistance Program is free to all employees and family members. They provide assistance with many matters such as personal growth, emotional well-being, relationships, financial & legal matters & many more subjects.
